

The image features two hands, one on the left and one on the right, drawn in a simple line-art style. The hands are positioned as if holding a dove. The dove is also drawn in a simple line-art style and is holding an olive branch in its beak. The olive branch has several leaves. The dove is facing left, towards the hand on the left. The hands are open, with fingers spread, and the palms are facing each other. The dove is positioned between the two hands, with its wings spread. The olive branch is held in the beak of the dove. The entire scene is set against a plain white background.

Ramo d'ulivo

Oggi in chiesa c'è l'olivo,
c'è l'olivo benedetto
e ne prendo un bel rametto.
Me lo porto a casa mia,
perchè simbolo d'amore
e di pace del Signore.
